FAMILIES FIND FINANCIAL EDUCATION RESOURCES AT THE “BE MONEY SMART BOOTH” AT “THE CELEBRATION CLINIC” AT OUR SAVIOUR’S LUTHERAN CHURCH IN NAPERVILLE

WHAT: How do you manage money in difficult times? How do you budget and do more with less? Why should your family try to start saving today EVEN in difficult times?

Learn answers to these questions and more at the “Be Money Smart Booth” at “The Celebration Clinic”!

The Economic Awareness Council (EAC) will provide fun, financial education activities for kids and financial education resources for parents at the “Be Money Smart Booth” at “The Celebration Clinic”, a fair providing medical services as well as other assistance for families with limited resources. Last spring’s clinic served hundreds of individuals and strong attendance is again expected for fall 2009.

At the “Be Money Smart Booth”, kids will create their own bank, play financial education games, complete contests and crafts, and receive savings themed stickers and stamps. Parents will choose from a variety of free financial education resources for adults and will have the opportunity to learn more about teaching their children to save. Information will be available in Spanish and English.

WHO: The display and activities will be available free of charge to visitors of “The Celebration Clinic” at Our Saviour’s Lutheran Church. Admission to “The Celebration Clinic” is free. The Celebration Clinic is provided by Our Saviour’s Lutheran Church. The “Be Money Smart Booth” is one of many offerings at the Celebration Clinic. The booth is provided by the EAC through support from MB Financial, member FDIC.
